

CYPHER AI 360: Closing the gaps on course development & delivery for educators

See how CYPHER AI 360 closes time, speed, and cost gaps in course creation and delivery – including AI-enabled content creation, skill management mapping, assessments, AI Crosscheck, gamification, and so much more!

Everyday education gaps

Time gap

Never enough time

Developing quality content for a single course takes 430+ hours to build and launch, slowing down time to instruction. Educators will never have enough time to bridge the gap – no bandwidth to map skills, assessments, or gamification to course content for better engagement and tracking.

Speed gap

Never enough people

Educators can't keep up the pace of change. When courses need updates or revisions, the process can be labor-intensive, potentially requiring a complete redesign. You can never move fast enough.

Cost gap

Never enough money

Traditional course development and delivery is expensive. You need multiple tools and platforms to produce one quality, comprehensive course – a complex endeavor costing you precious time, money, and energy.
